Indignation Meeting at Sylvan Lake Demands Reparation by Government

PROTESTS REDUCING SENTENCE OF HANSEN

Immigration Department Is Censored for Allowing Entry of Dams

(Special to The Bulletin)
SYLVAN LAKE, April 28.—Resolutions were adopted by the members of the Dominion Government to the widow of Edgar Faulkner, who was murdered by Vilhelm Hansen, a Danish ex-convict, on November 19, 1923, were passed by meeting of citizens which packed the Knights of Pythias Hall here tonight.

Hansen, who killed Faulkner in the latter's home, was convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged, but a charge later was reduced to manslaughter, and the sentence was reduced to five years in prison.

As Faulkner was defending his home against the charge of robbery, the indignation over the change in the sentence has run high since, and the meeting tonight resulted.

The first part of the resolution demands that Hansen be given with twenty years' penal servitude in Denmark.

Denmark and other countries ask the Government of Canada to make representations to the government of the Canadian citizen who was slain in the defense of his home by the killer.

The second demands the repeal by the Canadian Parliament of recent amendments to the Criminal Code under which Hansen was tried and after having been found guilty of murder by a jury of his peers.

The third resolution was passed at the meeting.

The first part of the resolution demands that Hansen be given with twenty years' penal servitude in Denmark.

Denmark and other countries ask the Government of Canada to make representations to the government of the Canadian citizen who was slain in the defense of his home by the killer.

The third resolution censures the Immigration Department for allowing Hansen, a man who was refused entry to the United States, to enter Canada.

He was allowed to enter Canada and ask that it tight up the inspection system.

Edgar Faulkner was shot dead by G. W. Smith, M.L.A., Detective John Holmes, S.W.P., G. W. Galloway of Red Deer, A. M. Stueck and the Rev. W. G. McKechnie.

HIGHLANDERS COMING HERE

Twenty Families from Inverness will arrive in Edmonton early in May and will be placed under the care of the Canadian government by the Land Settlement Branch of the Department of Immigration here.

All these immigrants were farmers and they have been invited to come for consideration by Mrs. Ann Macdonald, the Canadian government agent who has charge of all land settlements completed for settlers in the northern section of the province. The latter are aware of their whereabouts and are anxious to obtain their services.

Plenty of work is available in the timber industry and the lumber camps through the offices of the Canadian government agent. Every day, however, thousands of immigrants reach this area and find opportunities for employment in the settlements of this nationality in the northern Saskatchewan, Alberta and Western Manitoba. The majority of the migration from Central Europe comes from Bohemia and Austria. Czechoslovakia has also sent a large number of immigrants in the Edmonton district.

TELLS OF LURE OF OLD LONDON

Professor Says City Had Potent Influence in the Fourteenth Century

LONDON, April 19.—(Canadian Press).—The lure of London in the fourteenth century was an interesting snare by Sir Israel Gollancz, English Language and Literature, King's College, London. In a recent lecture he said that his subject was "Fourteenth-Century London." Sir Israel emphasized the position of London as a cosmopolitan city, the background of many of the poems of the second half of the fourteenth century, and the influence on the lives of leading men of the time of the power and influence with the power of Chaucer, the Londoner, the writings of poets of the period, and the influence of the provincial districts of the country. The poems of the fourteenth century, the poetry of the Midlands, and dwelt on the international references to London life in poems primarily intended for non-Londoners. The author said that the poems were evidently as great for men in London as for men in the provinces. The poems were not actually composed in London. Sir Israel said.

The professor directed attention to the struggle between the royal Lancasters, who contests the castle of Lancaster, and the Yorkists, who contested the castle of York.

SPORT IS MY SUBJECT

By DEACON WHITE

The British Rugby Clubs have finished their round of friendly games, and are now ready to get down to the business of official league battles for the possession of the Brookes Trophy, which is emblematic of the championship of the Alberta British Rugby Union.

Wednesday night, April 29, will witness the first hectic clash in a regular championship series of the brawny football warriors. The Edmonton and Eskimo teams are the combatants. The engagement takes place at Diamond Park.

The curve of interest in this great sport is rapidly climbing upwards in this early spring. The preliminary games of the three teams in the league are used to knock off some of the rough edges of the players, improve their physical condition, and show the managers their weak spots, if any.

All three teams appear to be pretty evenly balanced if the results of the so-called "friendly" games are any criterion. The league race certainly gives promise right now of being an extremely close one, and say many of a bitter old hand.

Last night all was friendly, and the Redskins beat the Edmonton team by the score of 3 to 0, just nosing out a win, so to speak. The Canadian Nationals then took a little conceit out of the Eskimos by trouncing them up by the count of 6 to 0. All the sharps began to figure that the Nationals were going to be the team to beat, and when the exhibition game between this outfit and the Edmonton fifteen came to bat last Saturday, the experts were given a rude jolt. The Edmonton team, judiciously strengthened after their defeat at the hand of the Eskimos, tore into the Nats with such vigor and improved skill that they took them into camp by the count of 11 to 3.

The Edmonton Club has gathered together some tough homburgs. That was very apparent when last Saturday they are going to be a big favorite in the race for the Brookes Cup.

It is time to look ahead, and foresee some intense rivalry developing between these three teams, because they are so closely matched in playing strength. No one team has a walkaway, and no game is going to be a foregone conclusion before it is played.

The Eskimos smarting under their defeat at the hands of the Canadian Nationals, are evidently looking for revenge. The exhibition contest; will set off the other major league game tomorrow night with blood in their veins. They have some splendid material in their line-up, and the battle between them and the Edmonton homburgs at Diamond Park should be a regular bummer, whatever that is.

Followers of the rugby pastime should not miss any of these coming league fixtures. They are a good deal more while attending than the spectators themselves should be. Getting acquainted with the various players of the different teams and brushing up on their knowledge of the game, so that they will be in a position to do some intelligent rooting at the Vancouver series May 24 to 26, and enjoy those games for the championship of western Canada to the full.

Vancouver has held a monopoly on the British Rugby game in western Canada for years. The Eskimos have been team to team to continually contest their supremacy. Edmonton sent a team out there three years ago this coming fall, and the Vancouver fifteen rolled over them quite handily.

But rugby affairs are shaping up differently in Edmonton now. New material of a high grade caliber has been lassoed and they are gradually being taught the intricacies of the game by way of the school of experience and the coaching of players who know what they are talking about. A much improved brand of the pastime is now being turned up to the full.

The game has caught on, and the team that Edmonton will be able to present against the Vancouver fifteen will be a stellar one that will have a good chance to win the championship of western Canada. This team will be selected from the three Edmonton teams that are now playing a regular schedule of games for the Brookes Cup.

Pitcher, Detroit Americans:
"I am not very fond of thinking, the fast

greatest asset."

"The slow ball is the thing, particularly with the lively ball now in use in the league."

"Most batters will tell you that the low ball is where control comes in. If the ball is high, the batter can keep pun-

"Hitters usually like a low ball, thereby having a tendency to ground
work for control."

The Daily Poem

THE GREAT DAYS
They have been great days, and they are dead—
Are dead and we remember them with pride.
That they were ours—and all the glory and the tears.
With them, and glory. They are fled Beyond our calling, and the tears we Are unwilling. Like the flight of drama.
They are gone, and vanish, and their passage seems
A nothing else about the ways we travel.

Now must we ever tread those self-
same ways
In shadows—till the glory comes again.
Though the great days are dead,
Renew their triumph in still greater days.
Doubtless failure, when this present pain
Is over, shall give back their joy to earth.

—B. Worsley Gough.

QUEENSLAND AGENT RESIGNS IN ENGLAND

Former Agent-General J. A. Finlay Returns to Home in Brisbane

THIRTEEN, Queensland:

Quite a stir was caused in political circles by the cable announcement that Mrs. Hall had found herself in the position of agent-general for Queensland in England and was returning to Australia.

Mr. Frank G. Hall, of Rockhampton, Q., said he was appointed as agent-general, a position generally held by a man who ought to be in jail, and who as he was being exposed to the public, he was compelled to resign.

"Fourteen times this coincided," holds the record for the number of consecutive years he has been registered him for violations of the speed limit.

Lord Curzon, of the British Empire, has arranged the trip, which will leave this country in July, with the intention of securing his chief's position.

Already he is a scoundrel among men for his conduct as agent-general in London, but it is likely he will receive the appointment.

He was a great surprise to his friends, who were shocked at his
